i just hit the ground ,boy have i arrived tell the dinosaurs,they just wont survive so i fell,and you just laughed you think that i canr satnd to see me trip this way you think i'm second hand i have seen it all,she's the only one she belongs to me,i'm the lonely one counting sheep and swatting flies you think there's no more left talk is cheap,how many lies sustain a single breath ? adam chance and zorro take them with a pinch of salt sad about tomorrow sorry,but it's not my fault while they were shoting at the moon somebody croaked and no-one heard whats a sin or two in the history of the world some one said to me "why d'ya play so loud?" what d' you want from me you corrupt the crowd miles of print you'd think we'd thought of nothing else there's more important things than ink and decibels
leave it to tomorrow corporal clott and stalingrad they're the ones to follow theyre the ones,that make me glad no-one alive and no-one left nobody cares or aint you heard looks like i'll take my dying breath in the history of the world the history.....of the world .....part one
