Obscene

The scene

The dream

Obscene

Demi-gods on golden thrones

Spend most of their time all alone

We're living through them

Until a decent to hell becomes our breakfast thrill

Flesh and blood to dust return

But fantasy we learn goes on and on

The dream

Shining with an inner light

Indefinable and bright

We begin to smell the kill

Sharing every precarious thrill

Flesh and blood may now decay

But forever young always you will stay

Obscene

Always you will stay

The scene

The dream

But look coming on the scene

But look coming on the scene

Another cat to die for teenage dream

Obscene

The scene

The dream

Obscene

Obscene

The scene
