I walk along the city streets you used to walk along with me
And every step I take recalls how much in love we used to be
Oh how can I forget you
When there is always something there to remind me
Always something there to remind me
I was born to love you
And I will never be free
You'll always be a part of me, oho

When shadows fall, I still recall the cafe where we'd dance at night
And I can't help recalling how it how it felt to kiss and hold you tight
Oh how can I, how can I forget you, baby
When there is always something there to remind me
Always something there to remind me
I was born to love you and I will never be free
You'll always be a part of me, oho

If you should find you miss the sweet and tender love we used to share
Then go back to the places where we used to go, and I'll be there
Oh how can I, how can I forget you, baby
When there is allways something there to remind me
Always something there to remind me
I was born to love you, and I will never be free
You'll always be a part of me

Always something there to remind me
Always something there to remind me
