(They call)

"I love you so much"
"Won't you stay?"
"I'll show you I do care"

"I do care"

I have so many things
And I am loved so very much
And I am beautiful
As such, I am none

For I am just a lonely god
Floating in a void

All my friends are empty thoughts
Made up dreams I can't enjoy

This little hole you see, it's filled with peices of This pretty void you see, it's filled with agony and bliss
And it gives to me, this pretty void you see
Speaks to me
Agony
