You Try, you fail
You make a bad impression
I cry, you fail
Sticky situation
I know you know
It's yur infatuation
You'll stay, I'll go

I am not the girl
You thought I would be
I will never be
So get over me
I am not the girl
I'm going to be
Nothing more to say

My wings, they grow
call it evolution
Some things move slow
With determination
You ask, you pry
It's your desolution
You wnder why?

I am not the girl
You thought I would be
I will never be
So get over me
I am not the girl
I'm going to be
Nothing more to say

You can't deal with change
You can't handle me
You won't let me be
Why do I have to hear you say those things
Over and over Like I'm not this and I'm not that?
How many times do I have to listen to you
Try to make me be something that I'm not?
Why am I not this way
Why can't I do the things you want me to do?

Why can't I talk like you want me to talk?
Well, I'm tired of trying to make myself be
Who you want me to be
I am me

I don't foresee and resolution
You won't agree
Unfavorable resolution
I know I need
Out of this attrition
Do you Hear me?

I am not the girl
You thought I would be
I will never be
So get over me
I am not the girl
I'm going to be
Nothing more to say

I am not the girl
You thought I would be
I will never be
So get over me
I am not the girl
I'm going to be
Nothing more to say
