What would you say if I told you about
A love too good to be real
Would you reply that you've heard it a million times
Oh, You throw up your hands-never understand
Turn and walk away, cry another tear
I know where you're coming from
I was Searching for the road that would lead me home

Chorus

Where I'm free
Free to believe what is real to me
Free-free to believe that he lives in me
La La La...La La La free

How would you feel if love fell in your arms
With the tenderness of a child
Would you be able to finally open your eyes
A love so strong it never begs-never borrows
Never steals from anyone
Even if I bend even if I sway even if I lose my way
I will always come home

Repeat Chorus

Free to love-free to dance-free to live your life with open
Hands that reach for the way-closer to the edge you're hear the Music play awaking all that once was slumbering's alive again
Cause I'm free...

Repeat chorus
