V.1:

I take the time to look around me
Another day in a crowd
These are the days I feel while everyone
Is moving on, I'm holding on, just holding on
All alone with everyone
Oblivious is how I want to be
To the world surrounding me
Cuz you know my name and that's enough for me
I'm seeing what I think I see
You seeing me - even
Underneath the height of things

Ch:

Who am I - comparatively
Against the wind - beside the sea
Through time and space - between the trees
Beneath the sky - on my knees
Behind the walls that made me feel free
You opened the door and you found me
Thought I was lost - guess I was wrong
You had it planned all along
And you made room for me

V2:

Now I'm forever in awe these days
Of the way you deal with me
Hard to believe that you can always be
Patiently creating still a better me
Always seeing deep inside the best in me
And I'm amazed at who I am
