Huuuhhh...

When will we open our eyes
And finally discover
We are united by one blood
When will we realize
We're sisters and brothers
And what the world needs now is love
There's a dreamer inside
Each one of us
Who wants to believe

(Chorus)

There is still a dream to believe in
There is still a hope after hope is gone
We can be the father's hands
And give peace a chance
And show the world
There is still a dream

Oooohhh...

A brother down on his luck
Fallin' to chances
We could pick the brother up
A sister down on her knees
Praying for answers
Why don't we show the sister love
All over the world
Life isn't just
But i do believe

(Chorus)

And everyone needs one
Cause no one is free from
The worries of life
That drag us down
If you can make it
My hands can take it
We'll stand together and pray

There is still a dream to believe in

There is still a hope after hope is gone
We can be the father's hands
And give peace a chance
And show the world (to show the world)
There is still a dream to believe in
There is still a hope after hope is gone
We could be the father's hands
And give peace a chance
To show the world (to show the world)
There is still a dream (there's still a dream)
There is still a dream

Ooohhh
