Looking back, 3rd Avenue, 586
I'm waiting in the doorway
I found your ring buried in a drawer
Underneath some letters from yesterday
Don't you wanna know how I've been?
I'm still running round looking for you and me
And anything so I can feel something

Looking out, 1606, 10th Avenue
I thought I heard your name
The leaves and rain paint pictures that we've seen before,
But they don't look the same
Don't you wanna know how I feel
Sleeping under the heel, jetlagged, sick, sad
Come on, let's cut a deal
So I can feel something

And everybody knows it's gonna be a long winter
And everybody thinks they're gonna go home with her
And everybody feels the same way one time
The same way, with the same rhyme
So where are you tonight?

Box of socks, garbage bags
And a shower drain filled with your brown hair
A fake Christmas trees, an Alabama snow globe
I really wish I didn't care
Don't you wanna know how it could have been
If you had just opened your mouth one time and said anything
So I could feel something

And everybody knows it's gonna be a long winter
And everybody thinks they're gonna go home with her
And everybody feels the same way one time
The same way, with the same rhyme
So where are you tonight?

Coming back, 586, 3rd Avenue
I'm waiting in the doorway

I found your ring buried in a drawer
Underneath some letters from yesterday
Don't you wanna know how I've been?
I'm still running round looking for you and me
And anything so I can feel something

And everybody knows it's gonna be a long winter
And everybody thinks they're gonna go home with her

And everybody knows it's gonna be a long winter
And everybody feels the same way one time
The same way, with the same rhyme
The same way one time
The same way, with the same rhyme
The same way one time
