Do you want it? Comes in threes
Do you need it? It's not free
What if when you find out what you want
You don't find me?

I hope it all goes well
When it's laid out for you
I think you might get spooked
When the truth is all tattooed

You leave wondering
Where the world stopped short
And where they got through

Leave it to the experts
They know best
Renovate the framework
So you can sell the rest

Do you want it? It comes in threes
So come and count back to me
Do you need it? It's not free
So you gotta put it back from me

You leave wondering
Where the world stopped short
And where they got through

Leave it to the experts
They know best
Renovate the framework
So you can sell the rest

Yeah, you leave it to the experts
They know best
Renovate the framework
So you can sell the rest

Do you want it?
Do you want it?
Do you want it?
Do you want it?

Leave it to the experts
They know best
Renovate the framework
So you can sell the rest

Leave it to the experts
They know best
Renovate the framework
So I can stomach the rest
