Our love is war
Count the scars
I Wear them on my back
So I don't have to look at them
When I was Younger
I thought Love was fire
Now that I'm older
I know love's a liar
Worship me Queen Bee
Love is a strange thing
I love you though you made me bleed
Every word that you say
Is the only thing that matters to me
I recall it went too far
Now I'm on my knees
Love isn't love 'til it lays bleeding
Worship me Queen Bee
Fuck me and I'll do what you tell me
Fuck me I'll do whatever you tell me
Fuck me Queen Bee
