I give to you my sweet love and my trust on this nite cause i love you soi much it doesnt matter what happens tommorow in the light cause i love you this much im only looking for love to be pure when we touch i feel that beauty of yours

CHORUS

i love the moon in your hair the majical air of you my light my love
i breathe your majical sky dont really know why i love you this much
light my love
i breathe your majical sky no one compares to you

i give to you all the wisdom i've found in this life cause i love you so much i want to hold you without having rights to your life cause i want you this much i'm only looking for love to be oure when we touch i feel that body of yours

if you should say that you don't want me- i would cry
cause i love you so much but i would still try to love unconditionally
i'm only looking for love to be real when we touch i feel that body of yours

(deicated to Roberto and Manu for your wedding may you have many happy years of love and light!)
