How can you be
So happy with failure
When nobody else gives a damn?

Don't look at me
What can I tell you?
We keep holding on once again

Suddenly
We're hanging in limbo
With only one way to get out

Down, all the way down
All the way down

How can I stand
Alone in the darkness
Too blind to feel for the door?

And how could you take
Me out of this nightmare
If you never stood here before?

Seems to me
That hanging in limbo
Can wear our hearts down

Can't you see?
We both know the answer
But never will break to get there

Oooh-oh

All the way down
All the way down

Down, all the way down
All the way down

Seems to me
That hanging in limbo can wear our hearts down

Can't you see?
We both know the answer
But never will break to get there

YEEEEAA-E-AH!

All the way down
All the way down

Down, all the way down
All the way down

Down, all the way down
All the way down
