Show me what youre all about
So I can tell
Just what youre thinking
When youre laying next to me

Come on, just let me
Give in, please babe
Come on, youve got to baby

Stuck on things
Stuck on things I never said
Wishing that I could have told you before
Youre my one, only one I ever need
Theres no excuse for what I put you through

Regrets got me by the throat
Shes not letting go
Relocations wearing down heart
Shell never fall in love, again

And its over
Cause Im too late
Shes gone

And I just wish that I could tell her
I love her
And if she knew that
I need her
Shed change her mind
