Heard a lot about you
Well, hello
Let me shake you by the hand
Just want to say "thank you"
At least someone has this whole thing sorted out now
At least someone has the right idea

My head is clear
I can see through all the dirt now
My eyes are clear
I can put my cigarette out now

Ah yeeee happy song
(come on and talk about it, this is a happy song)
Ah yeeee happy song
(come on and talk about it, this is a happy song)

Tell me what I'm doing when I burn your house down
Tell me what I'm doing when I call off all the plans
Someone's gonna know what the hell is going on now
Someone's gonna know the truth, to all of this

My head is clear
I can see through all the dirt now
My eyes are clear
I can put my cigarette out now

Ah yeeee happy song
(come on and talk about it, this is a happy song)
Ah yeeee happy song
(come on and talk about it, this is a happy song)

Ah yeeee happy song
(Come on and talk about it, this is a happy song)
Ah yeeee happy song
(Come on and talk about it, this is a happy song)
Ah yeeee happy song
(Come on and talk about it, this is a happy song)
Ah yeeee happy song
(Come on and talk about it, this is a happy song)
