I cried out to break the spell

You wake and smile

I just snapped and lost control

Distracted by irrelevance

The stress and the tension

The stress and the tension

I'm in a lull

There's nothing so dull

As talking, talking 'bout yourself

But what I meant to say

I'm sorry that I lost control

Distracted by irrelevance

The stress and the tension

Crawling through the keyhole

I'm in a lull

Radiohead Lull
