Tree,

Tree placed by the sea

An oniric vision you gave to me

Are you real or just a dream?

You jide the clouds of my destiny

My little sister is carving her name in your bark

Stepped by the rain

Her first love she gives to you

Keep it like a treasure until it's through

Feelings of peace you infused into me

But I've seen the end of this dream

Bearer of joy and prosperity

Bearer of the slipknot you are for me
