Greed caused the innocent blood to flow Entire cultures lost in the overthrow They came to seize and take whatever they please and all they gave back was death and disease my people were left with no choice but to decide to conform to a system responsible for genocide my people's culture was strong and pure and if not for that white greed it would have endured. They were left with no choice but decide to conform to a system. Souls encaged our minds enslaved now feel the rage brutality can never be undone. But the sun has not yet set, the bass and drums and microphone a threat as we investigate the crimes from the inside and see that theyre responsible for genocide ya jam ya culture down my throat say im inferior when upon it i choke fill my mind with a false sense of history then ya wonder why i have no identity ill strike a match and it will catch and spread the insight we need. A tiny fire, buring brightly, shedding light on the Darkness of greed
