"Avenge Dresden"

Visit "Avenge Dresden" on MotoLyrics.com

It was 1945, long time ago for you and I
When the bombers, they came from the sky
They burned men and women alive
300 000 Germans died
Oh tell me why, oh why, I must cry

An agreement handed down
They would not bomb civilian towns
But Churchill was wearing his traitor's crown
And as Hitler watched in vain
Down poured a fiery rain
My heart is filled with pain
It's such a shame

Ref: Dresden must be avenged
Brethren, we must make amends
Until justice is served, we shall not die
I hear the voice of those Germans cry:
"Avenge the destruction of Dresden,"

A terrible holocaust - we must avenge at any cost
As creators we are angered at such a loss David Irving's waged a fight, because the truth is always right

Just hidden out of sight on this night

Don't tell me lies about the holocaust
'Cause I've got some news for you don't tell me lies about the gas chambers
'Cause I ain't crying over no jews
