"Fallen Hero"

I feel their words pierce through me, like a dagger in My heart
Another fallen comrade almost tears my will apart
And although we've been accustomed to losing what we
Love
It doesn't make it easy and at times it's very tough

Ref: You are a fallen hero,
You fought for your race from the start
You are a fallen hero
And your memory remains in my heart

On that fateful summer's eve, when they took your life
Away
I swore to avenge you Brian, and I promise 'til this Day
I'll fight on as you would, if you were still here with Me
And pledge my life to our race, through creativity
To think of all that wasted youth nearly makes me cry
But at least you died for the truth, we all know the Reason why
Another victim of this system, like the comrades gone
But we've got to keep on fighting, we've got to carry On

Although they took your life away, we keep your memory
And in your race, on this earth, you've earned eternity
So as we stand here at your grave, and because you died
To fight the jew
Creators of the world now say: "Brian Kozel, we hail
You!"

Hail! The fallen heroes, they paid the highest price
Hail! The fallen heroes, gave their lives in sacrifice
Hail! The fallen heroes, salute them in their grave
Hail! The fallen heroes, men of honor, men so brave Hail! Brian Kozel!
