

Raining And OK "Endless Love"

Visit "Endless Love" on MotoLyrics.com

Love, tear your walls down
Love, take this crown upon my head
Love, bring our enemies to rest and I'll take a bow
When will we sing? And when won't we fight?
When this "love" conquers all, I'll stand by your side

I speak of endless love
It's the kind of fearless love that burns within me
Yeah, it brings these tears to life

Love, you're a jagged pill
Love, maybe you're the enemy
Your fame is blinding but I can't close my eyes
Your illumination is a site for sore eyes
A bitter drug, a slap in the face
Should I listen?

Oh we fall in love with "love" just for the sake of loving
