Here I wade in the wires now
Trying to feed this yearning somehow
But these phony beauties captivate my eyes
And I feel this feeling taking over me

Tonight, I can win this fight
Tonight, I won't sleep with these wires by my side

Stay with me for a while, just a little while
This room is filled with digital nightmares
And I'm left weaponless to fight
Don't leave me here alone...

Oh, you're nothing more
Oh, you're nothing more than a beautiful girl
