"Cure For Love"

You bring me roses
You give me kisses
You bring me moons and stars
That shine so high up in the sky
My heart is beating wild and crazy
Hope that I can find
A cure for this love
Could be you want me
Could be you care
Could be the words you say,
Are things I just want to hear you me nervous, got me shaking Maybe I can find
A cure for this love
La la la la...
Doctor, doctor
Give me healing, so I can stop this feeling it's getting so much stronger
And I just can't go on much longer
Doctor please
Find me a way out of love

When the phone rings

And no one answers

The letters come back saying

"Lover cannot be found"

Don't go looking, don't bother searching

You see it's cuz your baby

Found herself a cure for love

La la la la
