I come again phono again when the drama come in seem to come out at the right time wit the right rhymes smooth in the day it sound rough at night time jus an echo (an echo), in the ghetto, medow and valley, side street and alley, from new york to cali, i been seen in every state and between on stage, they scream every phrase i leave the city in a rage its on to the next one to bless one, thats my procedure, leave ya in a deeper mind state than anesthesia, ya catch a seizure if you try to stop the great, when i operate, jus let the crowd please ya drop the weight, jus wanna us in gear, from everyone from here to there, ideas that ya hear, severe to the ear never the less i provide a world wide request and manifest and this from the east to the west....

From new york to cali (to cali, to cali) coast to coast i been rippen coliseums and clubs, From new york to cali (to cali, to cali) rhymin over dubs for thugs girls blow me kisses and throw me hugs,

Musical rise i memorize in my mental interprise then improvise live wit my supplies you know the quota, fashinal design the shine the international kind start the rhyme time to motor, irreversable format, adapt, to wherever ya liven at from all four corners of the mat whenever they play it it gets interpreted hip hop related, already dedicated keep it heavy populated, attract everybody that could rock, do a block party make it look like woodstock, yea, rakim allah, nothin simi-lar to my siminar they travel never far plus thats where the women are, i like to ask em "what's the best time to hear me rhyme??" never the less i provide a worldwide request and manifest, and this is from the east to the west....
