"Smash To Nothingness"

kiss my misanthropical grin
taste my urge to sin
to disobey the rules of conformity forced upon us by our sheep-society
with my hammer of knowledge and alternatives I smash their restrictive dogmas to nothingness I know I might not come really far but I'll never kneel to the conformist lord smash to nothingness
forced upon us by our sheep-society
