August 20 1998

Tens of thousands

Are condemned to die

While we danced and drank fine wine

They were screaming to an empty sky

Why?

Kill my mother, kill my father

What am I (left) to do

...but kill your mother, kill your father

God make my aim true...

Is anybody even listening?

Does anybody even care?

Why?

Cause the beat just goes on and on

And the terror never ends

Is anybody listening?

(can you hear the screaming?)

Does anybody care?

(can you hear the screaming?)

Is anybody listening

To the sounds of the innocent

Suffering, suffering, silently

Why?
