Remember the times as if they were yesterday
And the games we used to love to play
Remember when I was everything in your eyes
Now the light has begun to fade away

I don't know what to do baby since I lost you
And it's safe to say that I just stand the pain
Given half the chance can I have this dance
We'll try our hands at a second time for romance

Now that you're gone I think about wat I done wrong
And I know there's no way to make it right
Sit here alone think about u all night long
And I know you'll be in my dreams tonight

I don't know what to do baby since I lost you
And it's safe to say that I just stand the pain
Given half the chance can I have this dance
We'll try our hands at a second time for romance

I don't know what to do baby since I lost you
And it's safe to say that I just stand the pain
Given half the chance can I have this dance
We'll try our hands at a second time for romance
Well try our hand at a second time for romance Yea maybe well try our hands at a second time for romance
