Didn't mean to kill that man in austin
But I caught him with my wife
No I cannot justify it
Somethings in this life aint right

Cuz everywhere I go I gotta lay low
That's just the way the old story goes
Walking down the line on the wrong side of the tracks
When u break the law ur backs against the wall
There's nothing u can do and noone u can call
Ur a drifter, ur never coming back, never coming back

Yea I kno I've got some problems
And my tempers pretty bad
And I've lost everything I own
Ruined everything I had

Cuz everywhere I go I gotta lay low
That's just the way the old story goes
Walking down the line on the wrong side of the tracks
When u break the law ur backs against the wall
There's nothing u can do and noone u can call
Ur a drifter, ur never coming back, never coming back

Cuz everywhere I go I gotta lay low
That's just the way the old story goes
Walking down the line on the wrong side of the tracks
When u break the law ur backs against the wall
There's nothing u can do and noone u can call
Ur a drifter, ur never coming back, never coming back
