

Rambler "Intoxicated"

It's not the tears that burn my eyes
It's just the pain I feel inside
It's not the vision deep inside
Tough decision I had to try

Dreams will slowly fade away
Absorb the sun rays never needed no shade
All I thought about is the way I express my feelings
Then I turned to the bottle and wrote down this song
Intoxicated intoxicated

It's just the buzz that clouds my head
In the mornings I feel dead
It's not the beer just the wine
Idk but I feel fine

Dreams will slowly fade away
Absorb the sun rays never needed no shade
All I thought about is the way I express my feelings
Then I turned to the bottle and wrote down this song
Intoxicated

Every time I close my eyes
I get that same old feeling inside
I've wasted years of my life
I know that someday I will be alright

Dreams will slowly fade away
Absorb the sun rays never needed no shade
All I thought about is the way I express my feelings
Then I turned to the bottle and wrote down this song
Intoxicated intoxicated
Intoxicated
It's slowly fading
Intoxicated
It's slowly fading
Intoxicated
