"Missin' You"

Know I've been round the world and back again
And I've seen what most men only dream
And I know that there's some holes inside of me
Know they say pain will eventually go away
I don't see it baby just grows stronger everyday
I don't want it I beg and plead for it to leave

Cuz I can't stop missing you don't know what to do
Oh I'm missing you and it tears my heart in two
I don't know why I start to cry over you

Now it's time to finally say goodbye
And I'll go where eagles spirit fly
And I know I'll die along with the tears in my eyes

Cuz I can't stop missing you don't know what to do
Oh I'm missing you and it tears my heart in two
I don't know why I start to cry over you

Know I've been round the world and back again
And I've seen what most men only dream
And I know that there's a hole inside of me
You know they say pain will eventually go away
I don't see it baby just grows stronger everyday
I don't want it oh I beg and plead for it to leave
