He puts the needle on the vein
And asks the music to come inside
Between neck and forearm
The melody moves silently into the bones

Go! Go! Go!
Bop bop shu bop [nonsense]

He has closed his eyes
In his blood a battle rages
An army marches through his guts
Slowly his intestines become warm

Go! Go! Go!
Bop bop shu bop [nonsense]

Nothing is for you
Nothing was for you
Nothing remains for you

for ever X2

He takes the needle from the vein
The Melody comes out through the skin
Violins are burning with shrieks
Harps are cutting themselves into the flesh
He opened up his eyes
But he didn't wake up

Nothing is for you
Nothing was for you
Nothing remains for you
for ever
