She always keeps still because she wants to be fingered she puffs herself up in the dry grass the moist little eyes become wet

Caught in the darkness she never sees the light of the sun she begs, twitching of lewdness her tongue inside the man

Kiss me

She bites in every tongue tightly because she enjoys letting herself be licked but because it tastes a bit bitter she is seldom kissed

Caught in...

Kiss me

Now the tongue crawls out of the mouth and hits her, wild in ecstasy several times violently in her face she is bleeding terribly from her nose

Caught in...

Kiss me
on my moist lips
kiss me
even if it tastes bitter
kiss me
