Can you break hearts Can hearts speak Can you torture hearts Can you steal hearts They want my heart on the right spot But then I look below Then it beats left Can hearts sing Can a heart burst Can hearts be pure Can a heart be made of stone They want my heart on the right spot But then I look below Then it beats left two three four left Can you ask hearts

Can you carry a child under yourself Can you give it away Can you think with your heart They want my heart on the right spot But then I look below Then it beats in the left breast The envious have not known it well Left two three four left
