Mein Herz brennt : My Heart Burns
Now, dear children, pay attention
I am the voice from the pillow
I have brought you something
I ripped it from my chest

With this heart I have the power
To blackmail the eyelids
I sing until the day awakes
A bright light on the heavens
My heart burns

They come to you in the night
Demons, ghosts, black fairies
They creep out of the cellar shaft
And will look under your bedding

Now, dear children, pay attention
I am the voice from the pillow
I have brought you something
A bright light on the heavens
My heart burns

They come to you in the night
And steal your small hot tears
They wait until the moon awakes
And put them in my cold veins

Now, dear children, pay attention
I am the voice from the pillow
I sing until the day awakes
A bright light on the heavens
My heart burns

My heart burns

Links 234 : Left 234

Can you break hearts can hearts speak can you torture hearts can you steal hearts

They want my heart on the right spot
but then I look below
it beats left there

Can hearts sing can a heart burst can hearts be pure can a heart be made of stone

They want my heart on the right spot
but then I look below

Can you ask hearts
(can you) carry a child under yourself can you give it away (can you) think with your heart

They want my heart on the right spot
it beats there in the left breast the envious have not known it well

Sonne : Sun

One, two, three, four, five, six, seven, eight, nine, out

Everyone is waiting for the light be afraid, don't be afraid the sun is shining out of my eyes
it will not set tonight
and the world counts loudly to ten

One

Here comes the sun

Two

Here comes the sun

Three
It is the brightest star of them all
Four
Here comes the sun

The sun is shining out of my hands it can burn, it can blind you all when it breaks out of the fists it lays down hotly on the face

One
Here comes the sun
Two
Here comes the sun
Three
It is the brightest star of them all
Four
Here comes the sun
Five
Here comes the sun
Six
Here comes the sun
Seven
It is the brightest star of them all
Eight, nine
Here comes the sun

The sun is shining out of my hands it can burn, it can blind you
it lays down hotly on your face it lays down painfully on your chest balance is lost it lets you go hard to the floor

One
Here comes the sun
Two
Here comes the sun
Three
It is the brightest star of them all
Four
And it will never fall from the sky
Five
Here comes the sun
Six
Here comes the sun
Seven

It is the brightest star of them all
Eight, nine
Here comes the sun

Ich will : I want
I want

I want you to trust me
I want you to believe me
I want to feel your eyes
I want to control every heartbeat

I want to hear your voices
I want to disturb the peace
I want you to see me well
I want you to understand me

I want your fantasy
I want your energy
I want to see your hands
I want to go down in applause

Do you see me?
Do you understand me?
Do you feel me?
Do you hear me?
Can you hear me?
We hear you
Can you see me?
We see you
Can you feel me?
We feel you
I don't understand you

I want

We want you to trust us
We want you to believe everything from us
We want to see your hands
We want to go down in applause - yeah

Can you hear me?
We hear you
Can you see me?
We see you
Can you feel me?
We feel you
I don't understand you

Can you hear us?
We hear you
Can you see us?
We see you
Can you feel us?
We feel you
We don't understand you

I want

Feuer frei! : Fire Free!
Whoever knows pain becomes criticized
From the fire that burned up the skin
I throw a light in my face
A hot cry
Fire Freely!

Bang bang

Whoever knows pain is raised
From the fire that burns in desire
A hard thrust (that gives off sparks) into her womb
A hot cry
Fire Freely!

Bang bang
Fire Freely!

Whoever knows pain is dangerous
From the fire that burns the soul
Bang bang
The burned child is dangerous
With fire that separates from the life
A hot cry
Bang bang
Fire Freely!

Your happiness
It is not my happiness
It is my misery

Bang bang
Fire Freely!

Mutter : Mother

The tears of a crowd of very old children
I string them on a white hair
I throw the wet chain into the air and wish that I had a mother no sun shines for me
There was no breast that cried milk
There is a tube that sticks in my throat
I have no navel on my stomach

Mother

I was not allowed to lick any nipples and there was no fold to hide in no one gave me a name fathered in haste and without sperm
I have sworn tonight
For the mother that never gave birth to me
I will send her a sickness and afterwards let her sink in the river

Mother

An eel lives in her lungs
on my forehead, a birthmark
I remove it with the kiss of a knife even if it causes me to die

Mother

An eel lives in her lungs
even if it causes me to bleed to death

Mother

Oh give me strength

Spieluhr : Play Hour

A small human only pretends to die
It wanted to be completely alone
The small heart stood still for hours
So they decided it was dead
It is being buried in wet sand *
With a music box in its hand

The first snow covers the grave
It woke the child very softly

In a cold winter night
The small heart is awakened

As the frost flew into the child
It wound up the music box
A melody in the wind
And the child sings from the ground

Up and down, rider
And no angel climbs down
My heart does not beat anymore
Only the rain cries on the grave
Up and down, rider
A melody in the wind
My heart does not beat anymore
And the child sings from the ground

The cold moon, in full magnificence
It hears the cries in the night

Between hard oak boards
It will play with the music box
A melody in the wind
And the child sings from the ground

Up and down, rider
And no angel climbs down
Only the rain cries on the grave
Up and down, rider
A melody in the wind
My heart does not beat anymore
And the child sings from the ground

Up and down, rider
My heart does not beat anymore

On Totensonntag they heard
This melody from god's field
Then they unearthed it
They saved the small heart in the child

Up and down, rider
A melody in the wind
My heart does not beat anymore
And the child sings on the ground
Up and down, rider

Only the rain cries on the grave

Zwitter : Hermaphrodite
I have stolen a kiss from her
She wanted to get it back
I have not let her go again
We melted into one piece
It is just too right for me
I am a beautiful bisexual
Two souls under my chest
Two genders, one lust

Hermaphrodite, hermaphrodite
Hermaphrodite, hermaphrodite

I go differently through the day
I am the most beautiful person of them all
I see marvelous things
I did not notice them before
I can make myself happy everyday
I can send myself roses
There is no second and no third
One and one that is the same

Hermaphrodite, hermaphrodite
I am so in love
Hermaphrodite, hermaphrodite
I am so in love with myself

One for me
One for you
Is there not one
For me

One for me
One for you
One and one
That's me

I am alone but not alone
I can be together with myself
Early I kiss my reflection
And at night I fall asleep with myself
When the others searched for girls
I could already fertilize myself
I am not even downhearted then
When one tells me "fuck yourself"

Hermaphrodite, hermaphrodite
I am so in love
Hermaphrodite, hermaphrodite
I am so in love with myself

One for me
One for you
Is there not one
For me

One for me
One for you
One and one
That's me

Rein raus : In out
I am the rider
You are the horse
I climb on
We ride off
You moan
I whisper to you
An elephant in the eye of a needle

In, out

I am the rider
You are the horse
I have the key
You have the lock
The door opens
I enter
Life can be so splendidous

In, out

Deeper, deeper
Say it! Say it loud!
Deeper, deeper
I am well within your skin
And a thousand elephants break out

The ride was short
I am sorry
I climb off
I have no time
I must go now to the other horses
They also want to be ridden

In, out

In (deeper)

Out (deeper)

Adios : Goodbye

He lays the needle in the vein and he asks the music to come inside between his throat and forearm the melody travels softly in the bones

He has closed his eyes a battle rages in his blood an army marches through his bowel the intestines become warm slowly

Nothing is for you
nothing was for you nothing remains for you
forever

He takes the needle from the vein the melody travels out of the skin violins burn with shrieking harps cut the flesh he has opened his eyes but he is not awake

Nothing is for you
nothing was for you
forever

Nebel : Fog

They stand with their arms tightly around each other
A mixture of flesh, so rich in days
Where the sea touches the land
She wants to tell him the truth

But the wind eats her words
Where the sea ends
She holds his hand, trembling
And kissed him on the forehead

She carries the evening in her chest
And knows that she must wither away
She lays her head in his lap
And asks for a last kiss

And then he kissed her
Her lips, delicate and pale
And his eyes tear up

The last kiss
Was so long ago
The last kiss
He does not remember it anymore

Hallelujah
He is religious and very sensitive
On his wall is a picture of the Lord
He wipes the spots from the Bible
He gladly distributes the Communion

(Hallelujah)
(Hallelujah)

He loves the boys in the choir
They keep their souls pure
But the tenor worries him
So he must be the closest to him
On his nightstand, quiet and wordless
A picture of the Lord
He slowly turns it around

When the church clock strikes twice
(Hallelujah)
He folds his hands for prayer
(Hallelujah)
He has remained without a wife
(Hallelujah)
So he must love his neighbor
(Hallelujah)

The young man is allowed to stay with him
The sin nests above the leg
So he gladly helps to exorcize them
To music and candlelight

When the church clock strikes twice
(Hallelujah)

He folds his hands for prayer
(Hallelujah)
Has has remained without a wife
(Hallelujah)
So he must love his neighbor
(Hallelujah)
When the church clock strikes twice
(Hallelujah)
He takes the boy into his prayers
(Hallelujah)
He is a true Christian
(Hallelujah)
And knows what charity is
(Hallelujah)

Turn around slowly
Turn around
