I am the rider
you are the horse I climb on we ride off
you moan
I whisper to you an elephant in the eye of a needle

In, out

I am the rider
you are the horse
I have the key you have the lock the door opens I enter life can be so splendid

In, out

Deeper, deeper Say it! Say it loud!
deeper, deeper
I am well within your skin and a thousand elephants break out

The ride was short
I am sorry
I climb off
I have no time I must go now to the other horses they also want to be ridden

In, out

In (deeper)
Out (deeper)
