He loves his mother
And from one side
The fish gives to her himself
It shed's its skin in front of empty testicles
The old skin falls on the floor
He loves his sister
And from the back
Eats it's way through to the mouth
The gills bloody still from sucking
At the red large eyes
Spawntime
It is spawntime
He loves the dog
Oh god, from above
The fish now kisses with the tongue
Spits dead milk into your face
You don't dare to touch him

Spawntime
Everywhere fishmilk
It is spawntime
The mother was taken by the sea
Spawntime
The sisters don't have time
Spawntime
The dog stands waving at the shore
Spawntime
The fish needs his loneliness
Spawntime
