"Wild Wine"

Wild wine - before your castle wild wine - I am ready Arrival is announced - only for the king God, stand by me - and open your gates wild wine - and totally slow wild wine - so warm and moist Wild wine - before your lap wild wine - it has been written deep in the water - you don't cross but my desire - laughs at the wings wild wine - like a dove wild wine - so wet and hot Wild wine - before this darkness wild wine - healed by the light it stays hidden - otherwise we could defend ourselves I wait for you - at the end of the night wild wine - only a grape wild wine - and bitter like snow

I wait for you - at the end of the night
