Do you want to see the bed in flames
do you want to perish in skin and hair
you want to stick the dagger in the sheet as well
you want to also lick the blood from the sword

Rammstein

You see the crosses on the pillow
You mean the innocence may kiss you You believe it would be hard to kill But where are all of the dead coming from

Rammstein

Sex is a battle
Love is war

Do you want to see the bed in flames
do you want to perish in skin and hair
you want to stick the dagger in the sheet as well
you want to also lick the blood from the sword
