Insanity
It is just a narrow crossing
The edges are instinct and need
I'll track you down
In heaven's light the mind's retreat
A sightless child who creeps and crawls
As it smells it's mother's call
I'll follow you
The scent is fresh and at the crossing
Dripping sweat like virgin blood
I cannot see
(I) can only smell (you). I taste (it) you
As hunger drives a beast of prey
I can sense you miles away
You smell so good
You smell so good
I'll stalk you everywhere
You smell so good

I'll follow you
so good, so good
I'll track you down
You smell so good
You will be found
I've got you now
I'll wait until it's gotten dark
Before I grasp your dampened skin
Betray me not
Oh can't you see the burning bridge?
Stop all your crying you can't resist the crossing then will not exist
