What do you want?
Im feeling kind of hazy...
Im not as strong as you might want to make me
Your map is unclear
This path can lead us anywhere...A
Anywhere will do as long as I am with you
Where do we go?
To outer space or straight home?
This rocket glows like lodestars and like lodestones...
Do you hear me?
Because I hear you close to constantly
Your sound is giddy
You sound like-carefully...
Perfect, painted picture could be reflections of what's true
Music, the bridge that led me straight to you Don't you believe, at all, that someone is meant for you?
Perfectly the lyrics could be reflections of what's true
Movies, the dream that's keeping me from you
Don't you believe, at all, some things are meant to be...
But what's true to you?
Some things are meant to be?
Do you want me? Im in a maze of hawthorn
While your mint lips are on a safe excursion
What do you want?
The dream or just reality?
The cold facts or the meant to be?
Coincidence or destiny?
Do you want me? Im feeling kind of weary Perfect, painted picture could be reflections of what's true...etc
