Iâ€™ve got no place else to go.
The cumulus-portal is closing above me.
Iâ€™ve got no one else to turn to.
My shining armour knight rode straight out on me.

Star after star exposed.
Born to be on the show
is there a minor role
for a moon soul ?
Star after star explodes
Everyone is alone
Is there a place in the sun
for a moon soul ?
Here and now,
changes come in crowds

Pearls of rain erode the lane
I am seasick
You seem so in balance
Please, donâ€™t dump me with this pain
Iâ€™m no strategist, and you are such a challenge

Star after star...

I want no one else but you
Anything you want me to,
I will do.
Power is sweet
but so is retreat
And the wild orchids unfold their secrets on repeat

Star after star...
