In your eyes I, suddenly see home
Did you say you knew a place where we could be alone?
Candle light and South African wine...
Cooling sheets of silk on such a safe, soft bed...
In your room
It happened all too soon
In your room
It happened all too soon
In your room
It happened all too soon
I fell down from the moon
With bubbles in my womb
In your eyes, so often, we have met...
Saying only here what we thought never should be said
You said: come with me
And I said: yes
You said: shhhhhh...
I fell into the embrace of your bed...
In your room...etc
Its bobble when Im with you
Its roomy when Im with you
Its silky when Im with you
IT HAPPENS WHEN IM WITH YOU...
