They say that love is a war
I see it clearer than I ever did before
I thought we were always ment to be
But we locked up our hearts and trew away the key

Oh I tried, God I tried...

Chourse:

But We were playing with fire
Though we were scared of getting burned
We tried flying higher
But we fell down and could never return

We were playing with fire
I even felt the heat closing up on me
We tried flying higher
Whatever we tried we could never never ever break free

We could never break free

I had it all worked out in my head
Guess it did not quite work out as I had planned
Now I know why it did not quite work out
Our hearts were filled up with uncertainty and doubt

But I tried, Oh God I tried...

[Chourse]

What the hell went wrong this time
Feels like a heavy chain is always holding us down
Why can't we break ourself free
Go seperate ways and live our lifes happily

I tried, You know I tried...

[Chourse]

We could never break free
