In our hearts
We all have our dreams
And in our minds
We all have our schemes

But no matter who you are
We all got our scars to live with

Look around and what do you find
Different faces, different minds
But no matter where you go
We're on the same plateau
We all wanna know

Where am I ever gonna find a bluebird
Where we ever gonna find some love
Cause everybody wants to find a bluebird
So go on and look up above

Friday's gone, nowhere to go
The weekend's coming
But you don't wanna know

Come on, get something on
All hope's not gone
Cause you might find it
(You might find it)
You know you might find it

You know you might find a bluebird
You know you might find some love
Cause everybody wants to find a bluebird
So go on and look up above

(Where am I ever gonna find a bluebird)
(Where we ever gonna find some love)

Everybody wants to find a bluebird
Everybody wants to find some love
Everybody wants to find a bluebird
So go on and look up above

Everybody wants to find a bluebird
Everybody wants to find some love
