I try over and over again
Keepin' on to a day when it ends
But there doesn't seem to be any answer left for me
I go over and over it all
Every detail I dont need recall
But there doesn't seem to be any answer left for me
Just the day and the night and the thought of what we used to be
Never knew a day could be so long
Never knew a love could be so wrong
Never guest it from such joy
Would come it hurts
So I take to a road pave in green
I'll return when i wake from this dream
But the pain doesn't leave
The distance makes it grow
All i have are the ashes
And once more spark from your glow

Please dont stop remembering
Even though im not there
My mind knows you've gone
But my heart does'nt care

Oh please dont stop remembering
Though time fades away
The loves still lives on
And memories stay

Now I live in a place by the sea
It took time but I set myself free
And im starting to feel that im not such a fool
Cause i know that i tested the ledge
I almost over the edge
But life is works too much
So i go on
With the day and the night and a dream
And i Still got my song

Please dont stop remembering
Even though im not there
My mind knows you've gone

But my heart does'nt care

Oh please dont stop remembering
Though time fades away
The loves still lives on
And memories stay
Oh Please dont stop remembering
Even though im not there
My mind knows you've gone
But my heart does'nt care

And if by chance you see me
Well I'll smile and say hi
You think i look fine
But im weepin inside

Please dont stop remembering
Even though im not there
My mind knows you've gone

Oh please dont stop remembering
Though news may go by
The love still lives on
And memories fly
