"it's funny how some people dream they put on a show just to be on the scene but i don't know how many times i've stood right here you still don't see me it may be wrong but tonight i'm gonna see those city lights cause it sure as hell beats lyin here wishin i was on your mind cause tonight i walked in you started talkin bout what you said we would never be oh and i've been worried same old story

never know if your gonna leave and say it's the last time baby just like i always do
then i give you another chance
and i lay it all on you caught myself out driftin guess sometimes it's good to be alone like a lonely gypsy i've got nothin to prove and noone to call my own i know there are people watchin just waitin for my next move yeah but they can't see that i'm too busy waitin on me and you

you started talkin bout what you said we would never be

yeah i give you another chance and lay it all on you lay it all on you"
