"well it's been a hard week chasin down these miles tryin desperately to find a reason to smile it's been some time now long overdue i know baby put on your favorite dress just let go

and we'll go downtown stop at the first bar we see yeah we can throw em down oh baby just you me we'll shoot the lights out so noone else can see yeah we'll close our eyes
and wish it was like it used to be

it's everyones fault who comes to your front door those guys have got it all and all they want is more i spent my last dime to see you smile tonight tell me baby what can i do to get this right

if we go downtown and stop at the first bar we see
oh baby just you and me

yeah well let's go downtown
ah baby just you and me
