::Randy Rogers Band::Reason To Stay:: ((its basically the best song ever..!)) you look pretty good for all that youve seen your smiles still as bright as its ever been

and you wont show your eyes scared that they might show all the world
what you told me last nite and your so tired of just bein alive and your so sad that you could just cry id sing you the sweetest songs

and hold you so long
make you forget all the reasons you talked about leavin this place if your thinking bout leavin
i could give you
a reason to stay

you seem pretty calm for all that youve done your always rehearsed you impress everyone

your covered so well that no one can tell your skin is on fire and your heart is in hell

i could give you

but if you gotta go then you outta know i wont stand in your way just give me time & ill change your mind and soon you'll forget yesterday awwww....

wont you stay with me tonite
wont you stay with one more time
