"maybe you can work it out be easy when i'm not around come Sunday i'll be feelin down run right back to me but i can't tell you where i go baby you don't need to know this path the road leads me down aint the same one others see cause there's highs and there's lows this roller coaster's outta control can't tell the sky from the ground and it's wrong and it's right it's gonna be another long night see the lights of the next town and i can't slow down

well it was good to be back home when you left i got drunk alone let the whiskey burn a hole right through you and me but i'm too scared to put it down cause it gets me to the next town and if that's wrong well atleast you know you can always blame me cause i'm high and i'm low

i can't tell the sky from the ground and it's wrong and it's right
well i've had to hammer down watchin everyone else pass by but i couldn't turn around even if i tried don't you let me try

no i can't slow down"
