Album: Tribute to Merle Haggard

Everybody's sings the blues sometimes and

Everybody knows the tune.

And everybody knows the way I'm feelin', 'cause

Everybody's had the blues.

A lonely, song someone is gone,

A story old as time.

Love, hate, or want and wait

Till misery fills your mind.

And everybody knows the way I'm fellin',

'Cause everybody's had the blues.

--- Instrumental ---

A lonely, song someone is gone,

A story old as time.

Love, hate, or want and wait

Till misery fills your mind.

And everybody knows the way I'm fellin',

'Cause everybody's had the blues.

Everybody's had the blues...
